MURAL AT MLK PARK IN BAY

HONORS LEWIS WITH HOPES TO INSPIRE CHILDREN

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Bay St. Louis artist Marian Glaser spent much of the day Tuesday painting a mural at Martin Luther King Park, honoring the late U.S. Rep. John Lewis.

As well as adding beauty to the park, the mural helps raise “community awareness of what’s going on (in the country) right now,” Glaser said. “It just seemed like something right to do for the park and for the kids.”

Glaser said the mural project was spearheaded by artist Steve Barney and The Arts, Hancock County.

“Last week, we worked with the NAACP Youth and College division to update the ‘I Have a Dream’ mural at the MLK Park,” Barney said.

“The response to that was fantastic, and the next day, Rep. John Lewis passed away, and so The Arts, Hancock County saw this as an opportunity to continue the momentum and positive energy at the park, while at the same time, honoring this Civil Rights icon at MLK’s shoulder.

Lewis, a long-time congressman from Georgia, died last week at the age of 80 after a six-month battle with cancer. The son of sharecroppers, Lewis rose to national prominence in the mid-1960s as a staunch defender of Civil Rights and ally of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. He survived a brutal beating by police during the landmark Selma, Ala. march in 1965.

“The mural includes iconography of the confrontation in Selma,” Barney said, “showing the Pettus Bridge and the Haisten’s Mattress sign,” representing the iconic “Bloody Sunday” photograph taken on March 7, 1965, showing Lewis being beaten.

Glaser said she hopes the mural “will inspire the children that they can do what they want to do, be who they want to be.”

Glaser, a long-time bay resident, has “always had a great passion for art and creating,” according to her website. “Currently, I’m focusing on portraiture with a desire to incorporate a vintage feeling into my work.”

Gov. Tate Reeves, along with FEMA Administrator Pete Gaynor; MEMA Executive Director Greg Michel; and Hancock County EMA Director Brian Adam on Thursday spoke about the state’s preparedness for hurricane season at Waveland’s Ground Zero Hurricane Museum.

“I think we can all say that if we look back at 2020, if we think there’s a possibility that something bad may happen, it’s probably pretty likely that it will happen,” Reeves said. “Having Administrator Gaynor and his team here on the Mississippi Gulf Coast is a really big deal for our state. It certainly shows their commitment and the federal government’s commitment to working with us and dealing with the challenges we face.”

Reeves said that the “model of disaster preparedness that works best in America” is that natural disasters must be

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors on Monday implemented a face mask policy in an effort to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

The policy extends to all county employees as well as visitors to publicly-owned buildings.

The board also encourages the public to conduct county business online when possible.

In a separate matter, the board also discussed administrative leave.

County Administrator Ed-die Favre said the county is in the process of finalizing the details that the county has to implement because of the CARES Act that was done back in March.

DEDEAUX JOINS MASS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

VETERAN EDUCATOR HELPS ADVANCE PUBLIC EDUCATION IN MISSISSIPPI

SEA COAST ECHO

Alan Dedeaux, superintendent of the Hancock County Public School District, has been appointed to the Mississippi Association of School Superintendents’ board of directors. Since its founding in 1969, MASS has grown into a nationally recognized coalition that provides state-of-the-art training and mentoring programs for educators throughout Mississippi while advocating year-round for improved public schools. The association regularly evaluates the composition of its board to ensure it includes the appropriate skills, experience and perspectives necessary to improve outreach and efficacy.

Selected to serve the board as an at large director, Dedeaux brings 37 years of experience in education to MASS. As part of his board duties, he will work with fellow directors to provide resources and services to improve the quality of public education in Mississippi.

Dedeaux joins the MASS board at a pivotal time when districts are facing multiple challenges, including the reopening of schools amidst growing coronavirus concerns, teacher shortages and rapidly changing technology needs.

“We are excited to welcome Alan to our board of directors,” said Dr. Phil Burchfield, executive director for MASS. “His knowledge and experience will be key assets in helping guide our future operations and strategies, with the ultimate goal of ensuring that Mississippi’s public schools are equipped to provide a world-class education for all students.”

Last year, MASS launched the Unleash Possible campaign to address the state’s teacher shortage by encouraging service-minded Mississippians to consider careers in education.

MASS also is aggressively working with state leaders to develop more robust recruiting and hiring practices for Mississippi’s public schools as well as better pay, stronger certification standards and other incentives to build and strengthen Mississippi’s teacher workforce.

In recent months, MASS hosted weekly webinars as part of its ongoing commitment to assist members as school districts begin the reopening process in the wake of closures tied to coronavirus concerns.

“It’s beyond inspiring to see firsthand the impact MASS is making on public education in Mississippi and how its leaders are working to create more inclusive, connected and healthy schools for all,” said Dedeaux. “I look forward to working with the board of directors and the entire MASS team to keep the momentum moving forward.”

The Mississippi Association of School Superintendents and the Alliance of Educational Leaders of Mississippi is a non-profit association whose membership is made up of 139 public school superintendents and more than 2,000 public school administrators. Its mission is to provide resources, advocacy, leadership, policy information, training, support, renewal, and public relations services that improve the quality of public education.

Body found in Hancock County may be related to Picayune missing person case

BY STACEY CATO, CONTRIBUTING WRITER AND CASSANDRA FAVRE, STAFF WRITER

Officials with the Hancock County Sheriff's Department discovered a body at a hunting ground off Texas Flat Road Friday evening, Hancock County Chief Deputy Jeremy Skinner said.

Skinner said the body was discovered while authorities assisted the Pearl River County Sheriff's Department and Picayune Police Department in a search of the area.

Pearl River County Sheriff David Allison said investigators were led to the area in Hancock County through the department's investigation into the case of missing Picayune man, 28-year-old Willie Ray Jones.

Jones was last seen in Picayune on July 6.

Pearl River County Coroner Derek Turnage said that the identity of the deceased has not yet been determined.

"We had to send the body to the State Medical Examiner's Office in Pearl, which won't be open until Monday" Turnage said.

Turnage said that positive identification will have to be made through DNA.

While investigating Jones' disappearance, the Picayune Police Department identified Dustin, 24, and wife Erica Gray, 21, as persons of interest.

The Picayune Item on Wednesday, July 15 reported that U.S. Marshals took the Grays into custody in Pueblo County, Colorado on warrants for possession of stolen firearms.

In a Facebook post, the Picayune Police Department stated that law enforcement officials from Picayune and the Pearl River County Sheriff's Department traveled to Pueblo County, Colorado to interview the Grays.

As a result of the investigation, Allison said authorities identified another suspect in the case, 18-year-old Austin Brookshire, who was arrested and charged with murder on Friday.

Hancock County Coroner Jim Faulk assisted Pearl River County Coroner Derek Turnage at the scene. Faulk said the body and any evidence has been transferred to Pearl River County where officials believe the murder occurred.

Allison said Friday that the investigation is ongoing and more arrests are expected.

Anyone with information related to Jones' disappearance can contact the Picayune Police Department at 601-798-7411, 601-337-6544, or 601-916-9411.

Tips can be submitted anonymously by calling Pearl River County Crime Stoppers at 601-799-CLUE or online. Mississippi Coast Crime Stoppers can be reached at 1-877-787-5898.

Man barricades himself inside Diamondhead home

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE, STAFF WRITER

Just after 9 p.m. on Friday, officers with the Hancock County Sheriff's responded to a call about a home invasion at a residence on Diamondhead Drive East, Hancock County Chief Deputy Jeremy Skinner said.

The homeowner had indicated to authorities that he was shooting at people who were trying to break into his home, Skinner said.

Upon arrival and a search of the yard, officers did not find any indication of a home invasion, Skinner said.

"Two shots were fired from inside the house," Skinner said. Once my guys heard shots, they cleared the area."

Skinner said that neighboring residents were moved down the street to a safe location.

The homeowner barricaded himself inside the house and told officers that he had "two dead people inside," Skinner said.

Officers communicated with the homeowner in an attempt to get him to come out of the residence, Skinner said.

"He (the homeowner) dove from a second story window and sustained non-life-threatening injuries," Skinner said."He was transported to a local hospital. We can't say if he was suffering from a mental episode or drug use. But everything he was saying was not factual."

Officers cleared the house and found no dead bodies, Skinner said. There were no other injuries to people or property damage reported.

The neighboring residents are now back home, Skinner said.

The event was nominated by a panel of experts that partnered with 10Best editors. Cruisin' The Coast earned the top spot through a popular vote.

"It sure is great to be recognized as the best car show in the land and to return to the top spot. It is quite an honor and very humbling for us and our volunteers to know that so many people from around the country think so highly of our event and Coastal Mississippi," said Woody Bailey, Executive Director of Cruisin' The Coast. Cruisin' The Coast finished the competition last year in the runner-up spot but won the crown in 2018. "We were extremely excited to just be nominated again this year alongside other world-class car shows. We look forward to welcoming many more people from near and far to Cruisin' The Coast for years to come."

To prepare for the 2020 event, organizers are implementing necessary measures to keep participants healthy, including social distancing and additional sanitation. These efforts align with the Coastal Mississippi Promise of health and safety, centered around keeping visitors and residents safe.

"We are thrilled to see Cruisin' The Coast receive such a great accolade. As one of our signature events held across the three coastal counties, it is a perfect example of how our region can work together to produce a phenomenal week of festivities throughout Coastal Mississippi. With over 36 million visitors to its website every month, USA Today has provided us with an excellent opportunity to showcase what we have to offer, which will in turn benefit the entire region as a destination," said Milton Segarra, CEO of Coastal Mississippi.

According to USA Today, "Cruisin' The Coast is considered 'America's largest block party'. Imagine more than 7,000 vehicles – hot rods, classics, antique vehicles – in a massive car show along the beachside highway on the Mississippi Coast. Car lovers love this annual event, which has taken over the Mississippi Gulf Coast every year since its inception in 1996. The Misfit Street Krewzers on Friday presented checks to local organizations. The Krewzers raised more than $7,250 through their fundraising efforts, Misfit Street Krewzers President Terry Poore said. The Krewzers presented a $5,000 check to CASA of Hancock County; $500 to the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center; $250 to the King’s Kitchen; $750 to the Bay St. Louis Police Department; and $750 to the Waveland Police Department.

“We didn’t do anything with it back then, quite honestly, because we had admin leave and everybody was getting paid so there were no issues with implementing something that we didn’t need to,” Favre said. “For the next pay period that will cover any of these issues that have come up, we will have all the details, will work with Gary (county attorney) on the fine details on what we have to do to implement all the requirements of that program.”

Board President Scotty Adam also encouraged employees who feel sick to stay home.

Hancock County Emergency Management Director Brian Adam echoed the same sentiment.

“If they’re sick, the CDC is recommending that people do that (stay home),” Brian Adam said. “If you have any type of symptoms of COVID, they should stay home. And if they continue to get sick during the day, should be quarantined and sent home immediately.”

Favre said that the CARES Act is federally mandated and in effect and he said he believes that the first ten days “is on them.”

“The policy itself is already in place,” he said. “We haven’t done anything with it because we didn’t need to at this point. But, now we need to. So whatever it says is whatever we’re going to do.”

In other action:

The board approved a memorandum of understanding with the city of Bay St. Louis for the Amtrak match funding (for depot renovations) in the amount of $25,000 and the $10,000 MLK Park splash pad commitment. The funding was approved by the previous Board of Supervisors in 2018. The funding will come from the county’s gaming fund.

Paul Harris with the Hancock Community Committee said that the 2020 Hancock County Fair is still scheduled for Sept. 16-19.

The next board meeting is scheduled for Aug. 3 at 9 a.m.

When the flag came down in my Mississippi hometown

Normally when I write about my Mississippi hometown, which sits newly polished since Hurricane Katrina on the lazy blue waters of the Gulf of Mexico, it's about growing up in a large family in a small town where almost everyone knew everyone, whether you were white or Black.

It's about the joys and sorrows, the laughter and tears, the mistakes made and lessons learned during those childhood and teenage years.

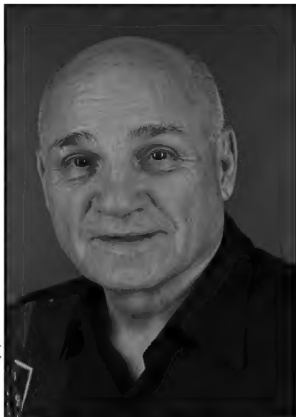

This time, though, it's about the flag. The flag that hung high in front of the courthouse on Main Street, which also housed the county jail. The Mississippi state flag with the rebel flag settled brazenly in a corner. It had flown in the state since February 1894. But not anymore.

The councils of two cities on the Mississippi coast — Gulfport, on June 15, and my hometown, Bay St. Louis, on June 17 — voted to remove the flags from municipal buildings. Twelve days later, the state's legislature woke up. The House voted 84-35 and the Senate 36-14 to change the flag. The galleries were filled to watch history being rewritten. Gov. Tate Reeves signed the legislation.

Now, that symbol of inequality, of racism, of hate and hurt, has been buried in the graveyard of shame. One hundred and twenty-six years too late.

It was wonderfully satisfying that the Bay, our shortened and affectionate name for the city, was one of the first two cities in the state to say enough is enough. From the moment the French colonists created it and named it for Louis IX, who was canonized in 1297, it has always been more New Orleans than Mississippi, with its Creole food, large Catholic population, galette or beignets and coffee and chicory at breakfast, and for many years Cajun French interlaced with English. It has long been a weekend and summer destination for New Orleans residents who own homes on the beach.

I haven't lived there for more than six decades, but my roots are there, and nine generations of Favres have lived there. A nephew, Mike Favre, is the current mayor, and his brother, Eddie, was mayor when Katrina made landfall in Bay St. Louis and left the city on crutches, battered but not beaten.

Wicker Advances Relief for Restaurants Under Economic Stress

Local Establishments Need Aid to Survive COVID-19 Crisis

When the coronavirus came to America, restaurants were the first and hardest-hit businesses affected by health restrictions. Government mandates forced restaurants to shut their doors to customers for months. This resulted in millions of wait staff and cooks losing their jobs through no fault of their own. In April alone, 5.5 million restaurant employees were laid off.

The dire situation for restaurants is not letting up. In just the last two weeks, state and local government mandates have shut down nearly 100,000 dining facilities across the country. Restaurants have hemorrhaged more jobs and revenue than any other economic sector, and every week more establishments face the prospect of bankruptcy.

RESTORING JOBS THROUGHOUT THE ECONOMY

The damage to restaurants has spilled over and hurt the farmers, fishermen, and food distributors who supply restaurants and rely on them for business. Meat

From the Senate

By Sen. Roger Wicker

producers have had to euthanize millions of animals because of a lack of buyers. In addition, fishermen have seen a dramatic drop in demand for seafood. Until restaurants can return to full capacity, farmers and fishermen will continue to struggle.

In response to these unprecedented challenges, I have introduced the RESTAURANTS Act to bring much-needed relief and certainty to restaurants across our nation. This legislation has gained bipartisan support in Congress, as well as backing from restaurateurs and a large coalition of industries that rely on restaurants.

RESTAURANTS DID NOT RECEIVE ADEQUATE RELIEF

The federal government acted swiftly this past spring to send relief to families, individuals, and businesses in need. Although these measures helped soften the economic blow for many Americans, restaurants did not benefit to the same degree as other businesses because of their unique budget needs. The Paycheck Protection Program required businesses to spend 60 percent of their loan money on labor costs in order for their loans to be forgiven. Yet most restaurants have to spend the larger portion of their budgets on fixed costs like food, rent, and utilities. As a result, many restaurants did not qualify for loan forgiveness and are still waiting for support.

The legislation I introduced would set up a $120 billion relief fund designed to give restaurants the urgent assistance they need. This fund would compensate small and independent restaurants for losses incurred from February 15 through the end of this year. Restaurants could use these funds to cover payroll, benefits, mortgage and rent payments, utilities, maintenance, and supplies. The relief could help thousands of restaurants survive this crisis and would give many establishments the certainty they need to reopen — helping many former employees regain their jobs. With more restaurants reopening, the farmers and fishermen who supply them would benefit immensely from an increase in business.

Restaurants are a pillar of our economy that support the livelihoods of millions of Americans.

They are the second-largest private employing sector after health care, and for countless Americans they provide the first opportunity for a job. Restaurants are not looking to profit at this hour but merely to survive. Now is a time for us to preserve these establishments in their moment of greatest need.

Managing Ponds & Small Lakes (PART I)

Many small bodies of water do not produce the amount of fish desired by the owner because of poor planning, bad construction, or a lack of good management. A good pond or small lake depends on location, design, construction, stocking rate, and management practices such as harvest, fertilization, and weed control. Often, ponds can produce 5 to 10 times more pounds of fish if proper techniques are followed.

Ponds or small lakes should be at least 0.5 acres in size and constructed so that at least 20 percent of the area is 6 feet or greater in depth.

Conservation Corner

By James L. Cummins

All ponds should have a drain, overflow pipe, and emergency spillway for best management. A drain will allow one to manage the water level of the pond, which is often necessary for weed control and managing fish populations.

Regarding pond dams, many pond owners do not control woody vegetation on the dam. When large trees die, or are cut, deteriorating roots can leave a hole in the dam, causing major structural problems which are expensive to fix. No woody vegetation should be allowed to grow on pond dams.

Once your pond has been constructed, adding fish-attracting, artificial structures can greatly increase harvest. Structures can be created using trees such as blackjack oak or old Christmas trees, or logs. Structure design can also vary. For example, one proven design consists of three or four trees that are crossed to form a pyramid. The bases of the trees should be braced together using 6-foot-long pieces of lumber. Holes should be driven through the base of the trees and weights attached using #12 UF cable. These structures will stand upright on the bottom and have a height between 10 and 16 feet.

Artificial structures can either be set out singly or in groups of three to five trees in either a triangular setup or set

Officials identify Bay St. Louis man who drowned at Wolf River on Thursday

BY HUNTER DAWKINS
GAZEBO GAZETTE

The Harrison County Coroner’s Office confirmed the death of 24-year old Miles Spear from Bay St. Louis.

Spear’s body was recovered under the Bells Ferry Bridge outside of Long Beach at 7:05 Friday morning.

The Mississippi Department of Marine Resources, the Harrison County Sheriff’s Office and the Harrison County Fire Services, and Gulfport Police Department’s Dive Team assisted in recovery of Spear’s body.

The cause of death was drowning after Spear was thrown under the Wolf River current Thursday afternoon, according to Harrison County Coroner Brian Switzer.

At around 4:15pm on Thursday, the Harrison County Sheriff’s Officer responded to a call that a group of five were caught in strong currents while swimming near the Bells Ferry Bridge in the Wolf River outside Long Beach.

Four of these individuals made it ashore, but one got caught under this current that was a result of the recent rain, according to county officials.

Switzer confirmed this being about the same location and cause for the tragic death last year of Long Beach High School Senior Peyton Henson.

Similarly, Henson’s

body was caught in the strong current where he drowned.

in a line down the slope of drop-offs. Structures should be weighted with concrete blocks (2.0 to 2.5 feet in length) weighing approximately 60 pounds each. They should be placed in 5 to 10 feet of water near points, creek channels, or artificial drop-offs. For ponds less than 1 acre, one fish structure is plenty. Otherwise, use one fish structure per 2 or 3 acres.

Spawning beds for bream are also useful for catching fish. Spawning beds are made by covering portions of the pond with gravel to create areas desired by bream. Spawning beds should be located in 2 to 4 feet of water near locations that are convenient for fishing. Use 3 to 5 cubic yards of washed gravel (0.5 to 1.0 inch in diameter) and place so that a spawning site approximately 12 to 15 feet in diameter is created. One should avoid sites that have a sedimentation problem.

• FLAG

The Bay of my young years was indeed a segregated community, elements of blatant racism painted in bold letters, ugly graffiti on the soul of the city: Black and white schools, Black and white churches, upstairs for Blacks and downstairs for whites at the theaters, totally separate restaurants and bars, an unconstitutional poll tax on voting, and the list went on.

Yet, Black and white families lived side-by-side or across the street from each other in parts of the city; white families attended church at the all-Black seminary, St. Augustine’s; cemeteries were for all residents; Latino kids from Mexico and Central America were students at St. Stanislaus, the Catholic boarding/day school.

Now, after all these years, the flag has come down. After George Floyd and Breonna Taylor and Ahmaud Arbery and Stephon Clark, and a list too long for this space, the flag has come down. After mass protests across the land, including Mississippi, after Black Lives Matter has become meaningful and not just letters on a T-shirt, after Confederate statues are removed or defaced, the flag has come down.

The Sea Coast Echo, the weekly newspaper, which was once owned by my family and where I started my own journalism career, captured this moment during the meeting when the decision was made. Jeffery Reed is the council member who made the motion.

Here’s the Echo’s account:

“Reed told his fellow councilmen earlier in the meeting that on Saturday he had gone to the crawfish boil for first-responders that the Hancock County NAACP and local law enforcement officials worked together to host at the Martin Luther King Park in the Bay.

“We had more whites out there working at MLK Park than African Americans,” Reed said, “and I am talking about on their knees, pulling the weeds out of the flower beds, and power washing and other things ... I don’t think it’s a moment, I think it is a movement. I think this is what Bay St. Louis is all about. Don’t get me wrong — racism is everywhere. Some of my best Caucasian friends are racist, but racism has two forms: You have malignant racism and benign racism.

“Malignant racism will kill you. Benign racism will not kill you, but it won’t help you either. Until we make some progress in these particular areas, that we stand out and stand up against this thing, I think we genuinely — I believe that is where it starts.”

It wasn’t long before Reed and the mayor received vile, racist letters that are rightly being investigated.

The flag has come down, but there is so much more to do.

Will this just be a moment or a movement?

BWSD to require students to wear masks

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

Bay-Waveland School District Superintendent Dr. Sandra Reed on Monday outlined more of the district’s plan for reopening and digital learning.

Reed told the board of trustees the district made one adjustment to the reopening plan they approved.

“That is, we’re going to require masks in situations where it’s not possible to socially distance students and staff,” Reed said. “We are giving all students one mask. We had an additional donation, a community member called and wants to purchase one for every student so they are doing so. Additionally, we were informed today that parents can pick up solid colored masks at the fire stations, both Bay St. Louis and Waveland.”

Reed said that the district’s return to school plan is three-fold. A parent can choose a traditional return to school utilizing social distancing, masks, and increased sanitization. The second option is digital learning. The third option is that a parent can withdraw the child and homeschool.

“That requires them to go to youth court to officially sign up to homeschool their child, at which point, the burden of providing instruction becomes all theirs,” she said.

Reed said the district is currently asking parents, if they are interested in the digital learning program, to complete the Google form online and meet with the principals.

As of Monday, there are 107 students signed up “preliminarily” for digital learning.

“This is before they meet with the principal and talk about the program and how it’s going to look,” Reed said.

Reed said that “a lot of the digital program is contingent upon the number of students that actually sign up for digital learning.”

“It’s going to be a tremendous burden on our instructional staff to offer both an in-person instructional program and a digital program,” Reed said. “So we’re really just hanging kind of loose until we know exactly what the numbers look like so we know what the best thing to do is.”

Reed said that the preliminary plan, as of Monday, is to use the Crossroads Learning Center, which is traditionally used for “students experiencing behavioral difficulties.”

“For this school year only to covert behavior students to a digital learning plan,” she said. “And to utilize CLC for our digital learning plan. We would take those teachers and ask them to provide the digital content for our secondary students. Those teachers are the ones that have the most experience in offering multi-subjects at one time during one period.”

North Bay and Waveland Elementary will also offer the digital program, Reed said, at the buildings.

“We’ll make one section per grade level as the digital classroom,” she said. “That way, we’re not breaking down instruction in every class, just doing it in that way. Hopefully we’ll have less physical students in there for them to work with.”

Reed said the district is also looking at utilizing CARES Acts funding to hire assistants, or rovers, people able to help with technology and additional tasks.

Reed said the district is also going to have a “practice day.”

“All of our staff will come to work, but students will be at home as if we have a digital shutdown,” she said. “We’re going to provide instruction that day exactly like we would in the event our schools have to close during the school year. That information will be super useful to use. That will tell us who really can’t do it because they don’t have the device, they don’t have the Internet capability, they don’t have the supervision, whatever it is. And then we’re going to work with those families individually to see if we can’t get a handle on that.”

Reed also updated the board about the district’s Chromebook order, which is “beyond back-ordered.”

The order for the Pre-K has been pushed back to December. The district is also purchasing an additional 600 Chromebooks, but that delivery date has been pushed back to March, Reed said.

“We’re going to need to utilize all the Chromebooks that we currently have and we’re going to need to utilize them well,” Reed said.

From the spring home distribution, Reed said that there are still about 100 of the district’s Chromebook that are “still out” and that the district is having “trouble getting back.”

Reed said that some of the summer teachers will be contacting parents to get the Chromebooks back.

Not only will the district need them in the event of a digital shutdown, there are students who may not have a device and have to do digital learning, Reed said.

Reed said that the district’s digital learning plan will revolve around “synchronous learning,” which means “in real time.”

“The parent/student will log in and the teacher will be teaching and they’ll follow that instruction right along,” Reed said. “In order to receive credit and not be counted absent, they’ll have to be logged in for the entire school day. They will also have to take proctored tests. At the secondary level, we’re going to use CLC to proctor the tests so that we don’t have to ask people in the regular buildings to provide regular instruction, provide digital instruction, and proctor tests.”

Reed said that the board would be approving a purchase on Monday that she said would be “very helpful to us.”

“Those are the thermal temperature scanners,” Reed said. “We have ten of them that are coming.”

Reed said they are expected to be in Baton Rouge on July 29 and in Bay St. Louis on Aug. 3. But, the district is looking at the possibility of sending an employee to Baton Rouge to pick them up in order to have them for the first day of school.

“I really believe it’s going to be critically important to get our kids accustomed to the new procedures on the very first day,” she said. “These thermal scanners, they monitor people as they walk by. It takes their temps and records their temperatures. It keeps a log that uses facial recognition and it keeps a log of every person for an extended period of time. So we can go to the machine and ask it to print out temperature for Sandra Reed for the last 30 days and it will give it to you. We also ordered them on wheels so that we can move them around. There may be some times that we do temperature checks twice a day. We would do them at lunch as well. And we would just wheel one of these machines to the cafeteria when students come through to get their lunch, they would walk through the screener as well.”

Reed said members of the administration have also started campus walkthroughs with the district’s nurses “trying to be proactive in terms of ways that we can make the students safer as our students return in the fall.”

“This is a dynamic that is changing rapidly,” Reed said. “I’m probably going to have to ask you (the board) to allow us to have another board meeting next week and we’ll be able to present the formal digital learning plan to you at that time.”

WHAT WILL ANXIETY OR WORRY EVER ACCOMPHISH FOR US?

By GARY ANDREWS

Why is it that we are fearful about many things that leads us to worry and have anxiety? People will tell you they do not fear anything, nor do they worry about anything, however I find that hard to believe. Over my years I have met many people and I don't know if I have ever met anyone that was so stable that nothing ever bothered them. I have met people in high positions of government and business and most of them would tell me about situations that bothered them. I have known many well-versed Christians, some non-Christians, and even some atheist. None of them would ever tell me that all is well and everything was lovely and peaceful in their lives. I will tell you that the most contented people I have ever met were Christians and walked the walk as well as talked the talk. Their relationship with God was unbelievable and their outlook on life was positive, even though it wasn't uneventful. Everyone faces trials and tribulations and most everyone has some skeletons in their closet. My mother-in-law was one of the most God fearing ladies I ever knew. She read her

Bible, attended church as long as possible, loved her family, a great wife to her husband, visited her neighbors and friends, and was one of the most charming people you would ever want to meet. She was all this but she was also a worrier. I remember a time when a cat was run over and killed on the road in front of her home and she worried if it died hungry. I remember when her son told her he crossed railroad tracks going to teach school, she would call him every morning to tell him to watch for trains. She took worrying to the highest level and at one time it caused her to go into depression. When this happened it created a time of worry about her and also a void in the family unit. It was a tough time for all of the family. With the proper help and counseling she came out of her depression and once again retained her role as a great spiritual leader. Even the strongest people have their time of despair and doubt. No one is above this and if we are not rooted in the strength of God's love, it is almost impossible to overcome. My favorite verse in the Bible is Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." I say this verse over and over again and rely on it when I am going through a trial, frustration, or any type circumstance. Worrying can be worse on a person than suffering through a sickness. In my opinion, worrying is a sickness but has to be overcome by trusting in the Lord and depending on Him to get you through anything and everything. Since worrying should not be a part of a believer's life, how does one overcome worry? In 1 Peter 5:7, we are instructed to "cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you." God does not want us to carry around the weight of problems and burdens. In this verse, God is telling us to give Him all of our worries and concerns. Why does God want to take on our problems? The Bible says it is because He cares for us. God is concerned about everything that happens to us. No worry is too big or too small for His attention. When we give God our problems, we are told in the book of Philippians He promises to give us the peace which transcends all understanding.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
PLANNING AND ZONING COMMISSION
DIAMONDHEAD, MS
The City of Diamondhead represented by Ronald Jones, Building Official, has filed an application requesting a text amendment in accordance with the Zoning Ordinance Article 2.8 (Amendment (Rezoning Procedure)). The proposed text amendments would create a Diamondhead Town Center District with related regulations. New language would be added to Article 4.1.1, 4.1.6, 4.1.9, Table 4.1 and Article 4.2.1.

The purpose of the Diamondhead Town Center District (TC) is to provide for and promote the development of a compact mixed use town center reflecting the timeless building patterns of traditional downtowns. These characteristics include design features that prioritize pedestrian activity, human scales outdoor environments, abundant landscape and natural features, and quality architecture. The district accommodates a range of commercial, residential, small scale production, open space and recreational activities. While land use is a very important element in the district, building form, lot placement, and streetscape take precedent in creating the desired environment.

In accordance with Article 2.8.2, the City Council shall have jurisdiction with respect to all Text Amendments and Rezoning. The Planning Commission shall review and submit a recommendation to the City Council on Text Amendments and Rezoning.

The Planning and Zoning Commission will consider this application at a special called meeting on Wednesday, August 5, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. The public hearing will be held at Diamondhead City Hall in the Council Chambers at 5000 Diamondhead Circle in Diamondhead, MS 39525. There came on for consideration by the Board of Education of the Hancock County School District, Hancock County, Mississippi, the matter of the borrowing of money and the issuance of notes therefor in the maximum principal amount of Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00). After a discussion of the subject, Board Member Billy Thomas offered and moved the adoption of the following resolution: RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT DECLARING THE NECESSITY FOR AND ITS INTENTION OF BORROWING MONEY FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING THE COSTS DESCRIBED HEREIN; ORDERING SAID RESOLUTION TO BE PUBLISHED; AND SETTING THE DATE UPON WHICH THE BOARD OF EDUCATION IS TO TAKE FINAL ACTION UPON THE QUESTION OF AUTHORIZING THE BORROWING OF SAID MONEY.

WHEREAS, the Board of Education of the Hancock County School District, Hancock County, Mississippi (the "Board"), acting for and on behalf of the Hancock County School District (the "District"), does hereby find, determine, adjudicate and declare: 1. It is necessary and desirable that a maximum of Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00) be borrowed for the purposes of making repairs, alterations and additions to school buildings of the District, for the purpose of erecting school buildings and other buildings used for school purposes, purchasing heating plants, air conditioning, fixtures and equipment for such buildings, purchasing land for school purposes, purchasing school buses and transportation equipment, improving and equipping such lands for school recreational and athletic purposes and paying the costs of such borrowing (the "Project"); 2. No funds are available in the school funds of the District or from any other source with which to pay the costs of the Project; 3. It would be in the best interests and to the advantage of the District that the funds needed for the Project be obtained by a loan in the maximum principal amount of Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00) evidenced by a note or notes (the "Notes") issued in the manner and form provided by Section 37-59-101, et. seq., of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, (the "Act"); 4. An annual levy of a special tax which shall not exceed three (3) mills on the dollar of assessed value of taxable property within the District, along with any other funds the District may pledge, shall be sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the Notes to be issued hereunder and all other notes issued and outstanding under the Act, as the same shall respectively mature and accrue.

5. Under the provisions of Section 37-59-115 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, the limitation of Section 37-59-5 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, on the indebtedness which may be incurred by school districts is not applicable to the proposed loan evidenced by the Notes; 6. The purposes for which the proposed Notes are to be issued as herein set forth in this resolution are purposes authorized by the laws of the State of Mississippi, and particularly in Section 37-59-101, et. seq., of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended, and the Board is authorized and required to declare the necessity and its intention of borrowing money and issuing the Notes of the District as evidence of the same. 7. Pending the completion of the Project plans and specifications and the issuance of the Notes, the District needs to pay certain expenses incurred in connection with the performance of the Project, with such expenditures to be reimbursed from the proceeds of the loan evidenced by the Notes, when issued.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Education of the Hancock County School District, as follows:

Section 1. The Board does hereby find, determine and adjudicate that the foregoing premises are true and correct. Section 2. The Board does hereby declare that it is necessary to borrow an amount not exceeding Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($2,250,000.00) for the purpose of paying the costs of the Project, previously described herein, all at a total cost approximately equal to the principal amount of the Notes to be issued hereunder.

Section 3. The Board does hereby further declare that no funds are available in the school funds of the District or from any other source with which to pay the costs of the Project, and that it is necessary that the costs thereof be borrowed in the manner and form provided by Section 37-59-101, et. seq., of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. Section 4. The Board hereby declares its intention to borrow such money and to issue the Notes as evidence of the same. The loan evidenced by the Notes shall bear interest at a rate to be specified by further resolution of the Board, but shall not exceed a greater overall maximum interest rate to maturity than the rates now or hereafter authorized under the provisions of Section 19-9-19 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. The Notes shall be dated from the date the loan is made and shall mature over a period not to exceed twelve (12) years, with the first installment of principal and/or interest thereon to be made within one year from the date thereof.

Section 5. Unless a petition signed by 20% of the qualified electors of said District, requesting that an election be called on the question of incurring said indebtedness, is filed prior to 5:30 p.m. on August 3, 2020 in the Board Room of the District located at 17304 Highway 603, Kiln, Mississippi, Mississippi, final approval of the borrowing of said money and authority for the issuance of said Notes shall be given by the Board at a meeting held on such date and hour at the aforesaid address.

Section 6. The Secretary of the Board is hereby authorized and directed to cause this Resolution, as adopted, to be published in the Sea Coast Echo, a newspaper of general circulation in the District and qualified under the provisions of Section 13-3-31 of the Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended. Said Resolution shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, with the first publication thereof to be made not less than 15 days prior to August 3, 2020 on which date the Board will take final action on the question of authorizing the borrowing of said money.

Section 7. The District shall use funds currently available in its District Maintenance Fund to pay certain initial costs of the acquisition and construction of the Project, as subsequently identified by the Board, with such expenditures to be reimbursed from a portion of the proceeds of the loan evidenced by the Notes, when issued. The allocation of the Note proceeds to reimburse the District Maintenance Fund shall be made in writing not later than 18 months after the later of: (a) the date the original expenditure is paid or (b) the date the Project is placed in service or abandoned, but in no event more than three years after the original expenditure is paid. The expenditures to be reimbursed from the loan proceeds shall be incurred solely to acquire, renovate, construct, or improve property having a reasonably expected economic life of at least one year and to pay the cost of such acquisition, construction and improvements. The loan proceeds shall be used to reimburse these expenditures, and not for the reimbursement of operating costs or similar working capital items. This resolution is the official action of the Board adopted as required by regulations promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service governing the reimbursement of prior expenses from note proceeds. Section 8. That all orders, resolutions or proceedings of the Board in conflict with the provisions of this Resolution shall be and the same are hereby repealed. Gaynor said that it’s important to continue to “embrace the lessons learned during Katrina.”

“And recovery continues on the Gulf Coast in Mississippi, so that we have that to contend with also,” Gaynor said. “Many challenges remain and I think that’s just the nature of the disaster business.”

Gaynor said that there are currently other challenges that “continue to complicate the landscape.”

“So not just hurricane season, not just recovery, but response to COVID-19,” he said. “And we continue to deal with COVID-19 in Mississippi and across the country. And combined with hurricane season, recovery, it just makes it a little more complicated. Not impossible, but more complicated.”

In an effort to assist state partners, Gaynor said, FEMA developed a COVID-19 operational guide for the 2020 hurricane season, which can be downloaded at www.fema.gov. The guide was put out nationwide, he said.

“The lessons of COVID-19 apply to most natural hazards,”

The FBI Jackson Field Office is leading the investigation into an assault on a federal law enforcement officer in Gautier, according to a press release issued Tuesday by the FBI.

“On Tuesday morning, local, state and federal law enforcement were executing a state arrest warrant for kidnapping at an extended stay hotel in Gautier when shots were fired,” according to the release. “A United States Marshal’s Service Task Force Officer was injured during the operation. With regards to sheltering, there will be a need for more square footage in order to execute social distancing, Gaynor said.

“You’re going to need more time, because you’re not going to be able to transport the amount of people that you would on a school bus,” he said. “If you needed one school bus, you’re going to need two. We encourage everyone to do that planning today.”

Gaynor said that the “most important part” of response and recovery is the individual.

“You have to prepare individually, you have to prepare your businesses, your neighborhoods, your communities, all those things need to happen,” Gaynor said. “Don’t waste time.”

Gaynor said that he is also a member of the White House Coronavirus Task Force.

“It’s simple things that you must do, social distancing,” he said. “Wearing masks, washing your hands, staying away from large groups. Those (large groups) are the things that make community spread worse. Simple things, they work.”

To close, Gaynor said that when it comes to disasters, “don’t wait.”

Michel said that “we’ve certainly not seen the worst of this hurricane season.”

“If the statistics are right and the data is right, we could very well be in for a rough ride this year,” Michel said.

Michel stressed the importance of maintaining a sense of awareness during hurricane season.

Adam said that “we are fortunate in Hancock County.”

“All the cities and the county work together and I’m very blessed to have the local leadership work a unified command,” Adam said. “What I mean by that is that we make all our decisions as one group. When we do evacuation orders, we make it as one. If the county does it, the cities are doing it.”

MEET LIZ!

This sweet girl was wearing the collar in the photo when she was found by a Good Samaritan, but no inquiries were received about her. So, we are seeking a fun family to give this 2 year old Labrador Retriever mix the responsible, loving home she craves and deserves. Liz is very playful and active, so she would be best suited to a family with children who are looking for a doggie playmate. She would also be a great fit for a single person, couple or active retirees searching for a BFF with whom to enjoy the outdoors. A home with a fenced backyard would be ideal for Liz, as she loves to play with her human and canine pals in our exercise yard. She would be an awesome addition to any family, large or small. We are unsure of she is completely house or crate trained, but she does keep her kennel clean. If you interested in giving this beauty her forever home, please call the shelter front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule a meet-n-greet. Please bring your family dog(s) along for the visit to ensure compatibility. Visit our Facebook page, Hancock County Animal Shelter, MS, to see more pictures of Liz and of the many other wonderful, adoptable dogs looking for their forever homes.

MHSAA Executive Committee votes on fall sports schedule

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Mississippi High School Activities Association Executive Committee met last Tuesday, July 14th, and voted to delay the start of fall sports two weeks due to the pandemic.

In the vote, the committee set August 10th as the start of practice for the sports of cross country, swimming and volleyball. The first interscholastic competition for those sports was set for August 24th.

The committee set the start date for football practice August 17th. It was decided that schools could schedule interscholastic scrimmages beginning on August 28th and the first game was set for September 4th.

In essence, the first two games of the season were cut out and will not be made up in football.

The football playoffs and championship dates remain unchanged.

Don Hinton, Executive Director of the MHSAA, stated, "We believe this is the right decision at the right time. As we've said since last spring, this is an unprecedented and rapidly changing situation where new information can and will alter plans and schedules at any time. We've been in contact with officials from the Governor's office and the Mississippi Department of Education. We have had discussions with sports administrators from Mississippi universities, community colleges and the National Federation of High Schools and our neighboring state associations. We are all looking for the best way to navigate these challenges and obstacles."

While the challenges are numerous, Hinton said the MHSAA will continue to make every effort to keep sanctioned sports and activities in place for the 2020-21 academic year.

Hinton ended, "We know how important these extracurricular activities are to the students, parents, families, schools and communities. We are staying optimistic and doing everything we can to move forward for the upcoming school year. This is something none of us has experienced before."

Football practice is slated to begin on August 17th in shorts and shirts. Shells can be added on August 19th. Practice with full gear starts on August 24th and interscholastic scrimmages

(two teams, no jamboree; can be varsity and junior varsity) will be allowed beginning August 28th. The first game is set for September 4th. The last game for Class 2A-3A-4A is October 30th. The first round of playoffs for 2A-3A-4A and last game for 1A-5A-6A is set for November 6th. Playoffs will be held on November 13th, November 20th, and November 27th. The state championships for football will be held on December 4-5. The first two games of the 2020 football season will not be made up.

Cross country, swimming, and volleyball will begin practice on August 10th and the first meet/match is set for August 24th. Any meet/match lost due to delayed start can be rescheduled with permission from both school administrations. Post season schedules remain the same at this time.

Junior high/junior varsity will not play until the week of high school game/meet.

The camp focused on fundamentals in shooting, dribbling, rebounding, free-throw shooting, and defensive stance.

OLA volleyball named 2019-20 USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award recipient

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

The Our Lady Academy volleyball team was recognized on Monday as a 2019-20 USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award recipient. This award honors teams who have matched their dedication to the sport of volleyball with excellence in the classroom.

During the season, the Crescents won their 20th consecutive Division title and eighth consecutive Class I state title with a 37-5 record.

Former OLA head coach Mike Meyers stated, "It is really fun, and quite an honor for the students, teachers and administration at Our Lady Academy, that each year the volleyball team not only excels and wins championships on the court, but also qualifies in the top of the academic achievement world. In addition to this, the very best part is what wonderful, well-rounded young ladies our players are. I am very proud of them."

The award, initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors volleyball teams that maintain a year-long grade-point average of 3.30 on a 4.0 scale or 4.10 on a 5.0 scale.

The USMC/AVCA announced that 1,313 teams earned the USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award for the 2019-2020 season, topping last year's record by almost 200 teams. Of the 1,313 recipients, 232 programs received Team Academic honors for the first time in 2020.

The award is presented to volleyball teams in Division I, Division II, Division III, NAIA, community College, and high school classifications for men and women.

OLA TO ADD GLOBE PROGRAM IN THE CLASSROOMS

SEA COAST ECHO

Our Lady Academy science teacher Randi Tolar was selected to participate in an intensive summer training program to become GLOBE certified through the Infinity Science Center Watershed Education and Environmental Impact Program. This opportunity was made available by The Naval Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Bay Watershed Education Training (B-WET) Grant.

Through the training workshop, Tolar received professional development techniques for teaching Meaningful Watershed Educational Experiences (MWEEs). Now that she has completed the GLOBE training, she will be ready to implement GLOBE protocols and learning activities in a classroom setting beginning this Fall. OLA students will have the opportunity to collect daily measurements from the weather station and upload the data to the GLOBE database for scientists to use in research. Students will also collect samples from the Bay each week and report the data to the GLOBE website. In addition to classroom instructions, students will be given the opportunity to attend field trips to explore watersheds within their own community. Students will then use the collected information to formulate a research project and will be afforded the opportunity to attend The NASA GLOBE Virtual Science Fair or The Southeast Regional Science Symposium.

The objective of the program is to empower students to investigate local environmental issues that affect their lives, choices, and communities, as well as to educate students on the relevance of following proper scientific protocol.

Diamondhead VFW Post 2880 Achieves ALL AMERICAN STATUS

SEA COAST ECHO

VFW Post 2880 in Diamondhead has been awarded All American status for the second consecutive year. Every year, a select group of VFW Posts across the nation are presented with All American Post status. All American status is meant to recognize outstanding VFW posts and is based on participation in VFW Programs, membership gains by Posts, and local community service programs.

The VFW is an organization of war veterans committed to ensuring rights, remembering sacrifices, promoting patriotism, performing community services and advocating for a strong national defense. The purpose of the VFW is to speed rehabilitation of the nation's disabled and needy veterans, assist veterans' widows and orphans and the dependents of needy or disabled veterans, and promote Americanism by means of education in patriotism and by constructive service to local communities.

In achieving All American status Post 2880 vigorously supported the national student scholarship programs in Hancock County which include the Voice of Democracy for high school students and the Patriots Pen for middle school students as well as the National Citizenship Education Teacher Award. Post 2880 also actively supports the Hancock County High School JROTC. Post 2880 provided assistance to veterans in distress through its Buddy Poppy donations from the public on Memorial and Veterans Day weekends. Money collected from poppy donations also goes to support the Mississippi house at the VFW National Children's Home. Assistance to needy veterans was also provided in conjunction with the Hancock County Veterans Services as well as support to the Military Heroes Banners program which allows the community to view and recognize local veterans for his/her service to our country.

Post 2880 partnered with a local food store for the pickup and delivery of food and canned items to the VA for use in their food pantry and distribution to needy veterans. Post 2880 also collected clothing items from individual donors and churches which was then provided to King's Kitchen in Bay St. Louis for distribution to the needy. Household items were collected and provided to VA Biloxi and Hancock Resource for recipients use in apartments funded through HUDVASH programs at the VA.

Post Commander Fred Sullivan stated "I am extremely proud of the comrades in Post 2880 for their dedication and commitment to community service and support for veterans along the Mississippi gulf coast. Recognition as an All American VFW post is not easy to achieve one time, but two years running is outstanding."

Bay-Waveland Yacht Club hosts its annual Review of the Fleet

BY JAMES KEATING MD
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The Bay-Waveland Yacht Club (BWYC) celebrated its Annual Review of the Fleet Saturday, June 27, 2020. The event designates the opening of the sailing season at BWYC for the year. Commodore John Baxter officiated the opening ceremony and noted the rich historical heritage and traditions of the yacht club. The annual boat review followed which was blessed with good weather. Then, a jazz brunch was enjoyed by the membership.

A presentation was made by Commodore Basil Kennedy on behalf of the Commodore’s Society of the famed burgee flag that was flying over the club during Hurricane Katrina and found by Commodore Walter Chamberlain. Chamberlain later gave it to Hank Renken as a testament to the strength and durability of the flag mast which Renken designed, built, and gave to BWYC. Renken presented the flag to Commodore Kennedy, suggesting that it should be preserved with honor to commemorate the loss of our club, but the resilience of our members in building a beautiful new facility. A Certificate of Registration was presented for the oak tree in Commodore Park which is now known as the “Commodore Oak.”

An installation ribbon-cutting event occurred for the New Electrical and New Bulkhead capital improvements. The electrical infrastructure of the harbor was refurbished and repaired due to age and safety factors: the electrical panels, individual outlets at every slip, GFI’s (Ground Fault Intercepts), and most of the general wiring. Finally, the exterior of the yacht club will receive a fresh coat of paint.

Fifteen boats competed in the Boat Parade and the winners of the boat decorating contest went to 1st place Francis and Augie Martinez (an Opti sailboat), 2nd place Baize and Mike Hansen, and 3rd place Madeline, Preston, Gilly, and Malin Chamberlain.

Sailing Director Rives Allen reports that the Summer Sailing Camp (ages 6-16 yr.) will start back in July with a third and fourth session. There are still openings in Session #4 from July 27-31. The various sailing programs are open for members and non-members of the BWYC.

In the fall the Harbor Mice Program (age 6-10) on Wednesdays and Fridays and the Junior Sailing Practice (age 7-15) on Tuesdays and Thursdays will occur.

The BWYC is a maritime community center providing recreational activities for every member of the family, young and old, in this historic, seaside hamlet.
